

The AGMS Week at a Glance...

Dear Parents/Guardians:

We want to thank Leading Seamen Gillian Good and Nadia Hakime who were our special guests from the Canadian Armed Forces and spoke at our Remembrance Day Ceremony on Thursday. Thank you to Grade 8 students Sally Shin and Mackenzie Khan who were our Students Hosts and did such an admirable job leading the ceremony. In addition a big thanks goes to Mr. Maxwell for preparing a very moving slide show tribute to veterans from Arbutus families. Thanks also to our music teachers Mr. Mazza and Mrs. Hill who led the Choir and Summit Strings group who performed beautifully. Thanks to all family members who joined us yesterday.

Parent Education Workshop Nov. 6

Thank you to our PAC as well as teacher Erin Fairweather for organizing what was a superb workshop on Wednesday evening on Youth Anxiety, featuring register clinical counsellor, Julie-Anne Richards. Approximately 65 parents attended from Arbutus and surrounding middle schools. Julie-Anne was able to frame what anxiety is and what it is not, while providing practical strategies for parents to support children who may be experiencing symptoms of anxiety. It is fantastic to work with such a proactive PAC group with so much energy to organize these events!

Lest we forget,
Rob Parker, Principal
