

The Arbutus Global Week at a Glance...

THIS WEEK’S REFLECTIONS

What a week!

First off, many classes have been doing Ukrainian Egg Decorating with Mrs. Popovich. See the photos for examples of how amazing they are!

Next, thank you to PAC for sponsoring the Social Media Awareness Presentation by Safer Schools Together on Tuesday. Many parents and staff have raved about how useful it was. I also learned a lot of new things about how to navigate the complexities of social media and internet safety.

Lastly, but certainly not least, yesterday we celebrated our first Night of Music at Uvic in three years! I am brimming with pride and joy. Thanks again to our inspirational band teachers, Michael Mazza, Jen Hill, and Kelly Montgomery for everything they do, day in and day out, to connect with and support student well-being and excellence through music. Last night was of the highest quality professionalism and FUN - and that is because of you. We are so grateful for you.

And just a head’s up to parents: We will be re-instituting lockers starting Tuesday. We have developed some school-wide expectations around them to ensure a smooth transition back.

It is also our Student-Led Open House this coming Wednesday, April 20th from 4:30pm -6:00pm. We hope to see you there. Please enter by your child’s assigned door, and enjoy! :)

Enjoy the weekend on these beautiful Lekwungen and Saanich lands with your families this four-day weekend. — Carrie Schlappner - Principal
