Presented with the support of Kimberley Jurens Woodwind Repairs and Tapestry Music.

Middle and high school students will play in large and small ensembles, take two private lessons with a faculty mentor, participate in performance classes, and stretch their music creativity and composition skills through a series of guided workshops. This program will help improve tone and technique and inspire students to take their instrumental playing to the next level.

Higher level classes will be offered to meet the needs of students of all levels.

For students with at least one year of experience on their instrument and a love of music!

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

June 17, 2022

Dependent on space being available, late applicants will be considered on a case-by-case basis until July 31, and will incur a $25 late registration charge.

August 22-26: $400

Includes a non-refundable Application Fee: $30

To be held onsite at the VCM's downtown location, 900 Johnson Street
